Report Submitted to CDC on Implementation of E-governance

College is having semi-automated mode of operation in various departments like administration, library etc. College promoted e-governance but taking care of students who are from rural background.

1. Administration:

College's administrative department is functioning by having all data on computers regarding the students and communication with other authorities. College is motivating paperless communication by adopting communication through e-mails.

2. Finance and Accounts:

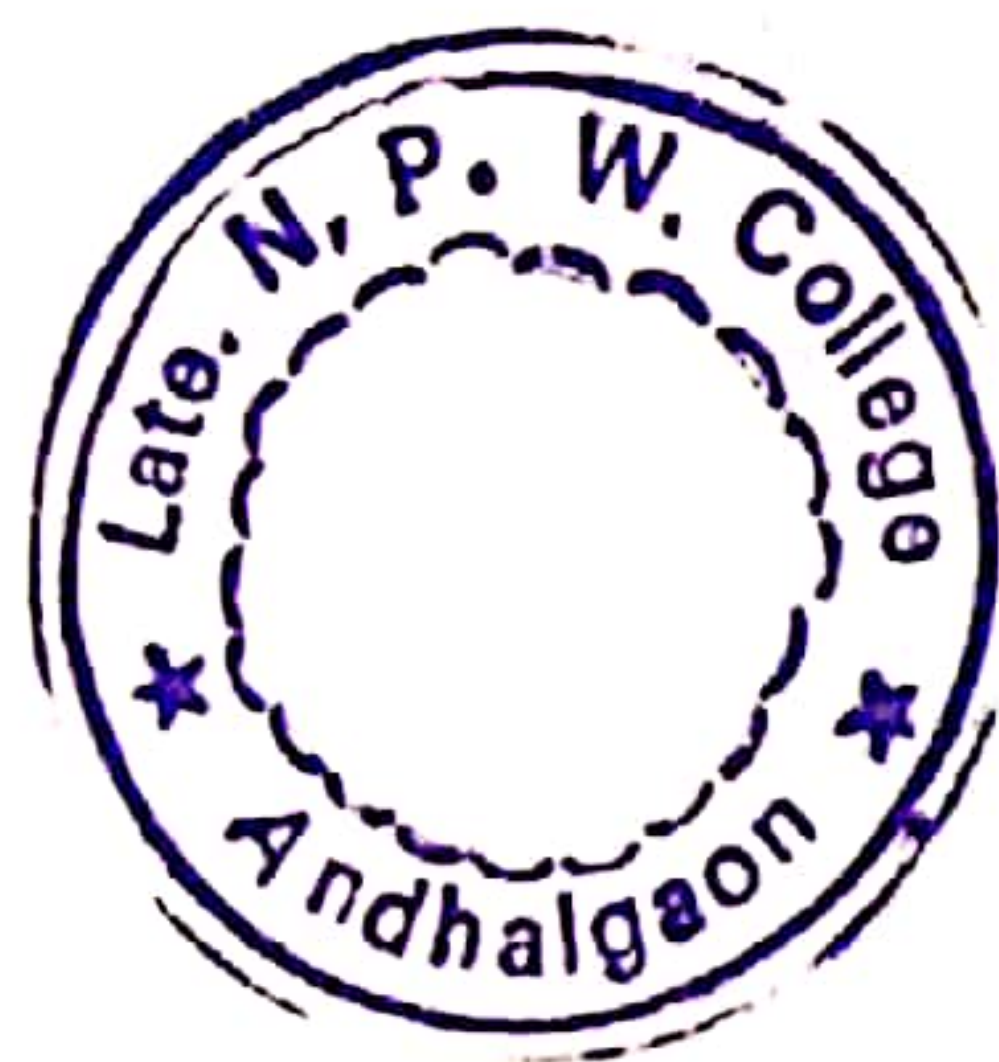

College has maintained details about finance and accounts in the form of manual as well as computerized reports. Work of scholarship, audit reports etc are governed through computerized systems.

3. Student Admission and Support:

Students have to undergo e-governed admission procedure which begins from the point of registration on university portal. College is supporting students for e-registration. After registration students have to seek admission in college by online mode. College has supported and trained the students for admissions, enrollment, scholarships etc.

4. Examinations:

The examination system is also e-governed where students have to fill online form for examination, paying of fees etc. Students are also supported by college for appearing in online examination mode during COVID period. Internal marks, practical marks, grading in subjects is e-governed.
